MEDIA RELATIONS LEADER, DEREK OKRIE

The Staff/Parish Relations Committee is pleased to announce the addition of Derek Okrie as the Media Relations Leader at Midland First UMC (FUMC). This is a new, part-time, budgeted position. Derek's responsibilities include leading the internal and external communications of FUMC's activities and successes via traditional and social media, evaluating and improving FUMC's advertising via print and social media to better connect with target audiences, and developing and implementing creative promotions to involve the community with FUMC's worship and ministry activities. Additional responsibilities are to direct the audio and visual aspects of the Sunday morning worship services so as to be impactful and meaningful to the congregation and to the target audiences viewing/listening via various media; including the development of a new video product of the 11:15 AM worship service to be distributed via appropriate social media.

Derek is a graduate of Saginaw Valley State University with a degree in Business Management and Administration. His previous work experiences include the Park Operations Project Manager for the Detroit Tigers organization, and as the Youth Director at the West Branch and Mt. Pleasant UMCs. Derek has a great love of God and is Spirit-led in service to our Lord and Savior. Derek starts his new role at Midland First on July 17. Please welcome Derek to our staff and church community.
